Description
A beautiful hardwood reed pipe traditionally used by Amazonian Shaman for self application of sacred Rapé snuff.

Kuripe tips are fire smudged and the pipe cleansed with Palo Santo "Holy Wood" smoke

The Kuripe is wrapped in natural, striped cotton leaving the sharper tip to enable a user to split a pile of Rapé on the hand for two servings.

Please note, given the individual craftsmanship involved, each Kuripe is unique and may vary slightly from the same one your friend bought. This is the ultimate touch that gives personality to your Kuripe.
